Approved For Release 2008/03/05 : CIA-RDP73-00402R000100340005-2

SECRET

25 JUL 1960

25X1

Vital Materials Officer, OCR [redacted]

Chief, Records Management Staff

Multiple Sets of Selected Vital Materials

1. The opportunity you provided for the review of your Memorandum of 3 May 1960 to the DDI is appreciated. I regret the unavoidable delay in replying; however I believe [redacted] of my Staff did discuss my viewpoint with you earlier. 25X1

2. I agree with the overall objectives as stated in your memorandum and I concur in your recommendations 1 and 2. I disagree however with some of the methods you proposed to accomplish dispersal, particularly through the use of microfilming, your recommendation 3.

3. My reasons for disagreement with [redacted]

ILLEGIB

[redacted]

b. Microfilm will reduce efficiency of emergency operations because it limits accessibility to one person and one document at a time.

c. Reproduction of prints from microfilm will be expensive - at least seven cents for every image.

d. It will be expensive to acquire space for storage in bank vaults and furnish core facilities as you proposed.

SECRET

Approved For Release 2008/03/05 : CIA-RDP73-00402R000100340005-2

Approved For Release 2008/03/05 : CIA-RDP73-00402R000100340005-2

ILLEGIB

Page Denied

Approved For Release 2008/03/05 : CIA-RDP73-00402R000100340005-2